H H the Maharaja being a minor, the administration of the State is carried on by a Council of Administration

The State of Benares under its Hindu Rulers existed from time immemorial and finds mention in Hindu and Buddhist literature. In the 12th century it was conquered by Saliab-uddin Ghori and formed a separate province of the Mohammadan Empire. In the 18th century, Raja Mansaram, an enterprising Zemindar of Gangapur, obtained a Sanad from the Emperor

Mohammad Shah of Delhi in the name of his son Raja Balwant Singh in 1738 and founded the Benares State, which comprised the four Sirkars of Benares, Ghazipur, Jaunpur and Chunar Raja Mansaram died in 1740 and his son Balwant Singh became the virtual ruler During the next 30 years attempts were made by Safadar Jung and after him by Shuja-ud-daula of Oudh to destroy the independence of the Raja, but the latter withstood them successfully, strengthened his position and built the fort of Ramnagar on the bank Raja Balwant Singh died in 1770 and was succeeded of the Ganges by his son Chet Singh He was expelled by Warren Hastings and Balwant Singh's daughter's son Mahip Narain Singh' was placed on the Gad: The latter proved an imbecile and there was maladministration, which led to an agreement in 1794 by which the lands held by the Raja in his own right were separated from the rest of the The direct control of the latter province was assumed by the British Government under an arrangement by which the surplus revenue was granted to the Raja while the former constituted the Do-On the 1st of April, 1911, the major portion of these Domains became a State The town of Ramnagar and its neighbouring villages were ceded by the British Government to the Maharaja in 1918 and became part of the State The State now consists of three districts, viz, Bhadohi, Chakia and Ramnagar H H the Maharaja of Benares, though a minor, is very an lous to see the successful end of the present The Council of Administration, war in favour of the British nation Benares State, have invested Rs 49,06,800 in war loans, and have also contributed nearly Rs 99,157 to H E the Viceroy's War Purposes Fund, Rs 7,398 to the Lady Linlithgow's Red Cross Fund and Rs 7,318 to Red Cross Fund and Rs 7,318 Efforts are in progress for the formation to Red Cross Week Fund; UP The officials of the of Civic Guards in the Districts of Benares State State have also contributed to His Excellency's War Purposes Fund

HOPAL: COL AIR COM-MODORL HIS HIGHNESS THE NAWAB SIKANDER SAULAT IFTIKHAR-UL-MULK MUHAMMAD HAMIDULLA KHAN, BAHADUR, GCSI, GCIE, CV.O, BA, LL.D, the present Ruler of Bhopal, succeeded his mother, Her late Highness Nawab Sultan Jehan Begum, in May, 1926, when, weighed down by age and cares of State, she abdicated in his favour to his accession, His Highness actively participated in the administration for nearly ten years as Chief Secretary and afterwards as Member Finance and Law and Justice He was also the Chancellor of the Chamber of Princes during 1931-32, and attended

various sessions of the Round Table Conference in London to advise and participate in the deliberations of that body and its committees on the subject of political reforms for India This year again, he has been elected chancellor of the Chamber of Princes

An all-round sportsman au fait with every game, Eastern or Western, it is particularly in polo that His Highness is best known as one of the greatest players of the generation and enjoys international fame. No less conspicuous are his achievements in administration which functions directly under his personal and active supervision

The administration is assisted by a Legislative Council, which represents traders, cultivators, Jagirdars, and general urban interests elected through joint or mixed popular constituencies. Parallel with it, a Patels' Assembly representing a federation of rural communes stands for the great body of cultivators throughout the dominion. There is a complete separation between judicial and executive authority, the Government itself being subject to the laws it makes

Bhopal is notable as the principal Muslim State of Malwa and in India, second only to the State of Hyderabad. It is rich in deposits of iron, bauxite, mica, and other valuable minerals and is rapidly growing industrially. A number of manufacturing concerns like the Bhopal Textile Mills, the Straw-board Factory, the Sehore Sugar Factory, the Narbada Valley Refrigerated Products Co, the Central India Chemicals Ltd, the Hamidia Match Factory, a tent factory, an oil mill, a glue factory, besides several ginning and pressing factories, form the keystone of the new industrial order in Bhopal

In the present conflict as in the last Great War, the response of Bhopal has been most enthusiastic. Apart from contributions in the form of gifts, investments now exceeding a million and a quarter and subscriptions for the purposes of a wide war effort, His Highness' gift of American securities amounting to over £70,000 was accepted by His Majesty for the formation of a Bhopal Squadron of fighters and the expenditure on the Army already the largest single item in the State budget has now been more than trebled and accounts for no less than 40 per cent of the total revenues of the State The 20th (Bhopal) I field Ambulance a hospital unit equipped on up to date lines and the Sultania Infantry are already in the field. The latter bas been replaced by another unit while a complete Mechanical Transport Unit which received its first training in Bhopal is now on active service. The latest additions to the State Forces are the Bhopal Army Service Corps and a Labour Battalon now on active service. Other contributions include important supplies of timber from State forests.

In March 1941 His Highness visited the bliddle East front was present at the famous assault which ended in the subjugation of heran in Eritra. He also paid a visit to Ceylon and the North West Frontier Province where he inspected the defence arrangements and performed the opening ceremony of the Khyber Cunningham

Educational Hall

In addition to two convalescent homes in Bhopal and Mussoorie equipped at considerable cost most of the important buildings in the State have been converted to military use A comprehensive scheme of internal security embracing the organisation of a volunteer reserve for police work and the formation of a new hattalion which replaces the Sulta ma Infantry is designed to relieve the British Military Command of the obligation to maintain the internal tranquility of the State aerodrome somewhere in the State laid three years ago has experienced further expansion to serve as an important link in aerial communica Every possible expedient is being tried to make the State's contribution adequate for a total war effort. Several non official committees including women's organisations are in charge of soldiers welfare work whose family needs are given special attention. A Red Crescent Society under Her Highness the Begum Consort provides amenities for troops abroad The Command Staff of the Bhopal State Forces has been re organised and arrangements are under way to mechanise a portion of the army Auxiliary nurses for the Government of India are heing trained at the Prince of Wales Hospital Bhopal

A new department under the direct supervi ion of the Ruler has taken over charge of Civil Defence accommodation on a vast scale is make fur interprials for which scheduled and other buildings have been requisitioned regular classes are held at several centres in the city to initiate the people in defence services of which the A R P and First Aid sections are already highly advanced Bhopal was the first to organise its National War Front After a preliminary organisation in the city the ramifications of the movement have been steadily interknitted into a scheme of wide rural publicity. The youth in tural areas has been organised into village guards formations. The strength of the forces hitherto mobilised exceeds 100 000 roughly about 13 per cent of the total population of the State

Specially notable has been the success of the State effort to tide of or the present scarcity in food stuffs. The State has not only exported large supplies of grains especially wheat to areas hard hit by scarcity but has also maintained civilrin supplies allower the State at cheap rates.

State Administration . The Bikaner State ranks among the foremost progressive States of India, and the narration of the following facts, should be sufficient to establish the enlightened and modern nature of its Administration.

(a) Bikaner was the first State in Northern India to Judiciary establish a Chief Court in 1910 (b) It was also the first State to raise the Chief Court to the status of a High Court in 1922 and to give to the Judiciary complete independence and to separate effectively the Judiciary from the Executive

(a) It was the first State in Rajputana Elective Institutions (and so far the only one) to establish in 1913 a Legislative Assembly which at present enjoys an elected majority with wide powers in interpellation discussion of Budget etc Further reforms of far reaching and fundamental importance were announced recently (b) Local Self Government is firmly established in the State every Nizamat having a District Board and practically every town with a population of over 5000 and some even with less a Municipality All Municipalities outside the Capital have elected Presidents

(a) Education is free in the State Compulsory Education Primary Education is in force in the Capital as well as in 8 District Municipalities Besides a College teaching up to M A Classes there arc no less than 17 High Schools 34 Middle and Lower Middle Schools and 172 Primary Schools in the State A Teachers Training School has also been established at the Capital (b) Special attention is devot ed to girls education Besides a girls High School (already nnnounced to he raised to Intermediate Standard) and several other girls schools there is in the Capital an institution which is unique at least in Ral putana for the education and truining of Lumaries of the families of the Raiput Nobles under strict purdah arrangements This institution owes its existence to the interest and initiative of H H the Dowager Maharaniji Sahib CI (c) A Montessori School for children of both sexes has also heen established (d) A public school on modern lines has also heen started to impart education according to latest methods of teaching (e) Liberal scholarships are also awarded to State subjects for prosecuting higher studies in technical subjects in India and ahroad

Medical Service (a) The two large and thoroughly well equipped General Hospitals one for Men and the other for Women and Children costing approximately 161 likhs have deservedly hecome entress of higher medical treatment for people helonging to other adjoining States and British territory and even distant parts of India Liery branch of medical relief is in charge of specialists—expert and highly skilled Physicians Surgeons Oto laryngologist Radiologist Ophthalmic Surgeon Bacteriologist Pathologist and Dentist—and there are arrangements for the most up to date treatment hy hlood transfusion X Ray deep ray therapy radium etc. There is also a separate well-equipped Tuherculosis Hospital (b) In the Districts also first class Hospitals exist and there are no less than 45 Hospitals and Dispensaries in the State A Maternity and Child Welfare Centre functions in the City (c) The upening of an Ayurvedic College at the Capital has also recently heen announced

Revenue Gang Canal It was the cherished dream of His late Highness ance 1869 1900 the time of the Great Famine to secure irrigation for his State and in 1905 to the time of the Great Famine to secure irrigation for his State and in 1905 to the Sutley Walley Project was mooted for harnessing the waters of the Sutley which was also to irrigate the northern portion of the State After protracted negotiations an agreement was reached in 1920 between the Punjah Bihaner and Bahawalpur Governments to carry out this Scheme The Canal now irrigates 737 765 acres in the north west of the State and was opened in the 26th Oct 1927 by Lord Irwin (b) The undertaking was one of exceptional difficulty 797 miles of the Main Canal and io miles of the feeder in the old Ghaggar hed had to be lined with concrete at a cost of about Rs 83 lakbs Railway communications 157 miles in length to open up the Canal irrigated area had to be huit involving very heavy additional outlay

(Bikaner-contd)

(c) The following facts about the Canal are outstanding—

(1) It is by far the longest concrete lined Canal in the world

(2) The length of the Main Canal from Ferozepore Head Works to Shivpur in the Bikaner State is 84 7 miles while the feeder and the distributaries are 850 8 miles long

(3) The cost of construction of the Canal including the share of the cost of Headworks amounted to over Rs 3 crores and 60 lakhs

(4) Besides the above, other expenditure connected with the Canal Colony, like the development of Railways, etc., amounting to about Rs 304 laklis, was also incurred

(5) Much of this total expenditure of about 3 crores and 90 lakhs of rupees has been met from State Revenues or loans raised in the State

(6) Lands were sold on conditions previously advertised, which were more advantageous than conditions prevailing in the Punjab

(7) The population of the Colony area has risen from 28,957 in 1921 to 1,43,129 in 1931 or an increase of 494 per cent and to 2,63,404 in 1941 or a further increase of 81 per cent

(8) The production of wheat and sugarcane has during this period increased from 2,935 and 16 Bighas respectively in 1928 to 76,490 and 12,382 Bighas respectively in the year 1943-44

Bhakra Dam (a) There is a very extensive area in the North in the Ganganagar, Padampur, Hanumangarh, Nohar and Bhadra Telisils which would also be irrigated when the Bhakra Dam Project is put into effect. According to this project, the gross area in the State likely to benefit by irrigation is about 12,05,600 acres. The State's share of the cost of this project is estimated at about Rs 8 crores. Should this Scheme materialise, practically the whole northern area of the State would come under irrigation. (b) Recently a most farreaching reform in the revenue administration of the State has been launched for the grant of Occupancy and Proprietary Rights to the cultivators throughout the State with powers of alienation and mortgage.

In the Canal area, full proprietary rights have been given to the colonists and to the old settlers

Railway The Bikaner State Railway now extends to 883 05 miles and the capital invested amounts to more than 4½ crores, including a capital outlay of Rs 20 lakhs on its own Workshops

Census The population of the State according to the Census of 1941 is 12,92,938 This gives an increase of 38 1 per cent over the figure of 9,36,218 recorded in 1931 The 1931 Census itself had recorded an increase of 41 9 per cent over the Census of 1921

Privy Purse and Civil List (a) Bikaner State was one of the first Indian States in which was introduced, as long ago as 1902, the system of having a separate and well-defined Civil List and Privy Purse on modern lines and a clear dividing line between personal expenditure of the Ruler and that of the State (b) The allotment to Privy Purse and Civil List does not exceed 9 per cent of the ordinary revenues of the State and it has been laid down that in no case the amount drawn for the Civil List and the Privy Purse shall exceed the sum of Rs 20,00,000 a year

Nation-building Departments It is an accepted policy of the State that as far as practicable not less than 10 per cent of the total revenues be spent every year on the Nation building Departments As it is the expenditure on Beneficent Departments amounts to

Rs 26 86 423 (Budget Estimates for 1944 45)

Administration. The Chief Saheb is keen on the advancement of his State and on a higher standard of living for his subjects. With this object he made strenuous efforts to consolidate his Giras which were lying scattered under the exchange system and secured complete sovereignty over the towns of Bilkha, Medarda and Chital which were Majmu till 1935. Bilkha, the capital of the State, is equipped with electricity and possesses good roads. It has a Middle School, a Taluka School and Girls' School and the Chief Saheb is anxious to raise the Middle School to a full fledged High School as early as possible. There is a hospital in Bilkha for medical aid to the people. The Chief spares no efforts to provide his people with amenities of life.

Revenue The system of Bhagbatai prevails in the State, but the Chief Saheb has granted proprietory rights to the Kheduts on their holdings

Sports The Chief Saheb is a great lover of sports and Shika and is keenly interested in cricket, tennis, billiards, golf and volley ball. He won the Kathiawar Gymkhana Tennis Challenge Cup, the Billiards Cup, and the Gibson Volley Ball Challenge Shield in 1940. A good marksman, he has shot nearly 20 lions and 50 panthers in his own limits of the Gir Forest. He is also adept at riding and owns some of the best Kathi horses.

The Chief Saheb visited England on the occasion of the coronation of His Imperial Majesty the King Emperor George VI in 1937 and toured over the Continent

The State has an area of 16, quare miles and a population of 45 000 Revenue Rs 7 00 000

The Chief Saheb exercises jurisdiction over 29 villages of which Bilkha Kunkawa. Medarda and Chirti are towns, of some commercial importance and afford scope for development industrially.

Transport The town of Bilkha is connected by the Junagadh viate Railway and is a Station on the Junagadh Vi avadar section while kunkavav und Chital are stations on the Jetalsar Dhasa section if the Gondal Railway Medarda is served by a regular motor service letween Medarda and Dushala and Medarda and Junagadh

Irrigation The State has recently built a tauk named Ravatsagar which irrigates 1 000 acres of land was created a K C S I in 1935

The Rulers of Dungarpur belong to the Gehlot Ahara Clan of the Ssodia Raputs and are the eldest branch of the House of Udapur The separation of the Dungarpur House from the House of Mewar dates from Vikram Samvat 1228 (AD 1171) when Rawal Samant Singh Ruler of Mewar and the eldest son of Ra val Kshem Singh left his patrimony and migrating south slew Chaurasimal the Parmar Ruler of Vagad the ancient name for the Country comprising the present States of Dungarpur and Banswara with its Capital at Batpat rak or Baroda The early rulers of whom Devpalder and Virsingh are worthy of special note gradually extended their territory by driving out the Parmars from Galiakot and Arthoona. It was Mahara wal Dungar Singli who founded the present Capital and named it Dungarpur after himself Among subsequent rulers Maharawals Gopinath and Somdas are noteworthy for the resistance they offered to the Sullans of Gujerat and Malwa

On the death of Maharawal Udai Singh I a warrior of great repute who fell fighting against the Emperor Babar in 1528 AD atthe battle of Khanwa the State of Vagad was split up the portion to the west of the river Mahi with the Capital Dungarpur heing retained by the elder son Prithvi Raj and the eastern portion now forming the State of Banswara going to the younger son Jagmal

In matters of administration His Highness is assisted by a Council of Ministers under his direct control. The State Army consisting of Cavalry, Infantry and Artillery units is well organized and is considered to be the best among Indian State Forces. The State maintains its own Postal system and a light Railway.

Educationally the State is much advanced. There are two degree Colleges at Gwalior, the Capital, including one for women, at Ujjain, and High Schools in practically all the districts. Recently by a proclamation the Intermediate College at Ujjain has been raised to the status of a Degree College and the Jivaji Rao High School, Gwalior and the Mardzaur High School have been made Intermediate Colleges. There are a few technical schools imparting education in arts and crafts and there is a Public School in the Gwalior Fort which is run on English Public School lines.

The political reforms announced in June 1939 were further supplemented by His Highness's Proclamation of September 1941. The strength of the Praja Sabha which was formerly 85 has been raised to 90, and of this number 55 instead of 50 will be elected representatives, thus providing for a still greater non-official element in the Lower House. The Praja Sabha and Raj Sabha (Upper House) will have identical powers and the range of their functions will be co-extensive.

The communities and interests to which special protection has been afforded are the Muslims, the Bhils, the backward classes and women To each of these a minimum number of seats have been guaranteed in the Praja Sabha To Muslims and women seats have been guaranteed in the Raj Sabha also

Another special feature of the recent reforms is that the legislature will have the power of discussing the constitution as well

The State has a Legislative Council of twenty-two members, eight of whom are elected and an Executive Council of eight members with a President—It maintains its own paper currency and coinage, postal system, railways and army—It has a University with six Arts Colleges including one for Women and Colleges for Engineering, Medicine, Law and Teaching—It has also an Honours College affiliated to Madras University, a College for Jagirdais and a College of Physical Education There are also a Village Industries Training Centre, a Central Technical College and an Observatory—A State Bank was established two years ago with an authorized capital of Rs. 1,50,00,000—The State is of great historical and archaeological interest as, within its limits, are situated many capitals of ancient and mediaeval Deccan kingdoms, famous forts, temples, mosques and shrines, and the wonderful Buddhist sculptures and paintings of Ellora and Ajanta

Constitutional reforms of a far-reaching character were announced in 1939 based mostly on the recommendations of a predominantly non-official committee. Under the new reforms scheme a much enlarged Legislative Assembly, with an elected majority and a specifical list of matters within its purview, is to be established. The basis of representation both for the Assembly and for all local bodies will be functional with joint electorates. The new constitution also provides for the setting up of a number of Advisory Committees on Religious affairs, Finance, Education, Public health, Industrial and Agricultural development and Hindu and Muslim Endowments to advise the member of Govt concerned on these matters for the reconstruction of the Hyderabad Civil Serv e Committee the setting up of Appoint ment Boards to control recruitment to Government services the establishment of village Panchayats and the reconstitution and expansion of existing District Boards and District Municipalities and Town Committees A new Press Legislation is also on the anvil

In spite of difficult conditions created by the war progress continued to be made with the scheme of gradual implementation of constitutional reforms in the State Statutory Advisory Committees and Panchayats have already been formed and the former stated functioning Since 1942 District Conferences are held every year and regulations regarding Town and Municipal Committees District Boards and Sanitary Powers have been promulgated Hyderabad and War Foremost among the units of Princely Inal Hyderabad is in the forefront of all Indian States and even many British Indian provinces in the matter of her practical contribution to the war effort of the country. No sooner had hostilities broken out in Europe than His Exalted Highness the Nizam the Fathful Ally of the British Government in keeping with the traditional policy of the House of Asaf Jah offered unstried co operation and placed his services and the entire resources of his Dominions at the disposal of the British Government.

His Exalted Highness has not only placed his Delhi and Bombay but has also donated from his pruy purse Rs 16 lakbs Govt donations amounted to Rs 5 47 lakbs. This is in addition to the war expenditure both direct and indirect of 5 7 crores and a contribution of Rs 50 23 crores in subscription to the Govt of India 8 Defence Bonds Following the lead of their august Master the public of Hyderabad have contributed so far Rs 42 _ lakbs Besides these eight units of the Regular Forces are now serving on various fronts both in India and abroad

This does not however by any means exhaust the list of measures which have been and are being taken by the Government and people of Hyderabad to contribute their quota to the country's war effort A special organization has been created and entrusted with the architecture of aligning Hyderabad industries with the war effort All State workshops are manufacturing war material in large quantities A centre has been established to train technicians required for the Indian Army and Air Force Hyderabad has also the distinction of baving an Elementary Ejnig Training School opened some years ago. This institution was established at a capital cost of Rs 1.75 labbs. Besides the textle industry bas produced 19 6 million yards of cloth of various kinds 3.3 lakhs of hospital sheets and large quantities of other material required for war purposes.

The share of the women of Hyderabad in the war effort of the State has been considerable. Under the active leadership of Her Highness the Princess of Berar, who is the President of the Women's War Work

(Hyderabad—contd)

Committee, they have provided large number of articles of comfort for troops on active service. The Xmas and New Year Gifts to troops from Hyderabad have been an annual feature

Capital Hyderabad Population 728,400 (1941) It is interesting to note that in the race of cities for places Hyderabad has succeeded in retaining her previous position that of being the fourth largest city in the Indian Empire. The city is beautifully situated on the banks of the river Musi with fine public buildings, broad cement roads, good electricity and water supply and an efficient bus service run by the State Railway. Among interesting places are the Char Minar, and Mecca Masjid, the fort and tombs of Golconda, the large artificial reservoirs—the Osman Sagar and the Himayat Sagar—and the Osmania University

His Exalted Highness has always evinced a keen interest in the industrial development of his State and any new venture finds a ready response from him. He places the prosperity of his subjects above everything else. He is deeply solicitious of the welfare of the Depressed Classes and through the unremitting labour of his Government many new schemes for promoting their welfare have been enunciated HEH has kept up the tradition of the House-of Asafjah to observe absolute impartiality in matters pertaining to the religion of different communities in the Dominions.

the Rajkumar College, Rajkot

The Rulers of the State belong to the Clan of Parmar Rajputs who once ruled over Malwa

The State first came into relations with the British Govt. in 1826, and by a subsequent Treaty executed in 1839, the State came to be ranked as a "protected State" under the aegis of the British Govt. At present the State is in direct political relations with the Govt. of India through the Political Agent, Gujerat States Agency, Bulsar The State is included in the Representative Electorate of the Chamber of Princes The present Ruler is the fountain-head of all authority, judicial, legislative, and executive He enjoys plenary powers in civil and criminal matters and has powers of life and death over his subjects, except that sentences of death require the confirmation of the Resident for the Gujerat States. The Rana Saheb is the founder of the Mahikantha Rewa Kantha Chiefs' Association, and in that capacity he presented the case of 104 States of these Agencies before the Indian States Enquiry C'ttee (Financial) at Bombay in Feb 1932 He is a patron member of the All-India Kshttriya Mahasabha, and also a member of the Willingdon Sports Club, Bombay

The Rana Saheb is very popular among his subjects whose welfare and prosperity are his constant aims in life. He has effected several improvements in education, medical relief, agriculture, communications, etc., and the State is making good progress in all directions. A thorough overhauling of the administrative machinery, and the separation of the judiciary and executive, the establishment of a separate Sessions and District Court, as well as the construction of buildings for Hospitals, Schools, Library, Telephone lines, Guest Houses, and Irrigation wells, tanks, etc., mark his progressive rule. The Rana Saheb is a keen sportsman and has bagged 75 panthers and three tigers. He is also a keen social reformer. The Ruler's loyalty, devotion and helpfulness to the British Govt, and the Crown are wellknown. During the present War he has contributed liberally to the several War Funds.

The Maharao of Kutch is the head of the Jadeja Clan, a branch of the old Samma Rajputs who were overlords of Sind some 600 years ago. The Jadejas gradually passed into Kutch, and scions of the clan took possession of various tracts. Early in the 16th century, Maharao Khengarji I became the first Ruler and Rao of the whole country. Bhuj was established as the capital of Kutch in 1549. For the last 125 years there has been a succession of four great Rulers—Desalji II, Pragmalji II, Khengarji III and now Maharao Vijayarajji—all in close friendship and co-operation with the Government of India

His Highness in his earlier days was a great sportsman—his chief sports being cricket, football, tennis, shikar and sculling. He is very fond of both botany and bird life. He has widely travelled in Europe and parts of India, and has a large number of close friends in Britain and in India.

His Highness is putting into practice his schemes for the betterment of his subjects in all directions and for the development of the State's possibilities, notably in irrigation

In spite of 9 consecutive years of deficient rains, His Highness has contributed munificently to the war effort and is working in cordial co-operation with the Government of India for the safety and welfare of India He is a member of the National Defence Council

AYURBHANJ FLIGHT-LIEUTENANT MAHARAJA SIR PRATAP CHANDRA BHANJ DEO, K C I E, Maharaja of Mayurbhanj

Born February 18, 1901 Succeeded on the 23rd April 928

The Maharaja is a member of the Chamber of Princes in his own right Pro-chancellor of the Utkal University

Educated At May o College, Ajmer, and Muir Contral College, Allahabad

Married On the 25th November 1925, a daughter of Maharajkumar Sirdar Singhji of Shahpura, Rajputana

Heir-Apparent Tikait Pradeep Chandra Bhanj Deo

Area of State 4,243 square miles Population 990,977 Revenue Rs 34,00,000

Mayurbhanj ranks first in point of population among the States of the Eastern States Agency, numbering 42, of which 23 are known as Orissa States, 16 as Chhatisgarh States, and 3 as Bengal States

The Capital of the State is Baripada, a progressive Municipal town which provides modern amenities. Baripada and the southern parts of the State are served by the Mayurbhanj Railway which takes off at Rupsa, a junction station on the Calcutta-Madras line of the Bengal-Nagpur Railway. The northern portion of the State is, likewise, served by a broad-gauge section of the Bengal-Nagpur Railway which connects with Tatanagar on the Calcutta-Bombay line.

The Ruling family is the head of the Bhanja Vansi Kshatriyas of Orissa and claims to belong to the solar line. The emblem of the State is a peacock and the State crest is a peacock on either side of a shield which bears the device of a trident, a bull, a crescent moon and a lotus in full bloom. The geographical and strategic position of the State constituted it an important buffer State at the time when the East India Company and the Mahrattas were engaged in a struggle for supremacy in Eastern India and Mayurbhanj supported the British cause. During the Mutiny of 1857, the Ruler of Mayurbhanj again distinguished himself as a loyal ally of the East India Company

The administrative machinery of the State is modelled generally on British Indian lines—Judicial independence being secured for it under a full-powered High Court The State is rich in mineral and forest resources—iron ore mining undertaken by the Tatas forming the principal industry. The State has recently embarked on a policy of rapid and progressive industrialisation and factories for vanadium, glass, textiles, potteries, plastics and plastic products, chemicals and pharmaceuticals have been set up. Cottage Industries also receive due

There is an Industrial School and the share of importance Mayurbhani Tussar Textiles and Cottage Industry products receive appreciation of people both in India and ahroad. The systematic Geological and Botanical surveys conducted with a view to improving the potential resources of the State have yielded valuable results and large deposits of vanadium hearing magnetite glass sand and kaolin have been discovered There are 3 major irrigation schemes working at present and new projects are being undertaken yearly to provide facilities for water supply both for irrigational and drinking purposes. In order to improve the economic condition of the agriculturists the State has opened an Agriculture Department established granaries and passed several legislative measures besides making liberal annual grants of loans Free medical relief is being given by a fully equipped hospital at the Capital with several branch dispensives spread over the State Primary education is also given free adult education forming an important item of the Rural Reconstruction programme Scholarships are granted liberally and an increased expansion of educational institutions has given a great impetus to the spread of literacy The State is rich in The recent discovery of palæolithic sites and other antiquities archæolo_ical finds testify to its ancient civilization and culture

With a view to bringing the people of the State into closer touch with the administration the Maharia has inangurated 5 Praja Sabbas These representative assemblies consist of a majority of members elected on the basis of adult franchise and they represent all shades of local opinion in matters concerning the welfare of the people in general. The establishment of a Central Assembly has been announced and it will have the right of (i) making laws (2) discussing the budget and (3) interpellation and right of moving resolutions. Among other important steps taken during the right of the present Ruler for the amelioration of the conditions of his subjects may be mentioned (i) the opening of the Mayurbhan) State Bank (ii) Installation of electricity and waterworks at the Capital (iii) the introduction of telephonic communication all over the State and (iii) the construction and remodelling of administrative buildings. The Maharaja is ahly assisted by his Dewan Major B P Pande B A LL B F RES (I ondor)

By his singleness of purpose and devotion to duty the Maharaja has inspired the entire population of the State where the war drive is daily gaining in momentum and Mayurbhani is proud of an unbroken history of services to His Majesty the King Emperor and the Empire Besides placing his personal services and resources of the State at the disposal of His Majesty the Maharaja has contributed three first rate air crafts costing approximately Rs 2 6lakhsfor use in connection with the The State has so far given over Rs 24 laklis to the various war funds and war loans It has already supplied timber costing approxi mately a crore of rupees and has further undertaken to supply large quantities for war purposes The Mayurhhan Central War Efforts Committee and its branches are doing useful work in furthering the war efforts of the State. With a view to preserving internal security and tranquility the State has introduced almost all important measures contained in the Defence of India Rules The Maharaja has also directed the issue of a war supplement to the fortnightly State Gazette for dissemination of authentic war news

HISTORICAL SKETCH.

The Ruler of Sandur has a great and glorious tradition to uphold The House of 'Ghorpade' of which he is a true son—there have been no adoptions in this house—was founded in the Deccan centuries ago by Karnasinh, a Sisodia Rajput whose ancestors had died fighting Alauddin Khilji at Chitor The enterprising Karnasinh scaled the walls of the otherwise impregnable hill fort of Khelna (Vishalgad today) by means of a rope tied to a monitor lizard, called "Ghorpad" in Marathi and so acquired the title 'Ghorpade' for himself and his descendants. The line of Shivaji the Great was founded by the younger brother of Karnasinh, but the claim of the Ghorpade family to a place in history is independent of this relationship to the founder of the Mahratta Empire

"The vast region of Southern Maharashtra and Karnatak was long under the sway of the various Ghorpade Families and ruled by them" (Sardesai) The names of Bhyriji, Santaji and Maloji have inspired both terror and pride over this broad tract. Under Bhyriji's grandson, Murar Rao, the celebrated Chief of Gooty, the Ghorpades attained the height of their power. Murar Rao's empire extended as far east as Madras and Pondicherry and he levied a tribute of Rs. 7 lakhs from Mysore and Hyderabad. It was this same Chief of Gooty whose help Clive solicited during the siege of Arcot, and who routed Chanda Saheb, turning the scales and history itself in favour of the British

In 1818 during the time of Shiva Rao the State first came into political relations with the British and its unfettered internal sovereignty was recognised. The State pays no tribute to the Crown and the Ruler has absolute powers.

ADVINISTRATIVE SYSTEM AND REFORMS

Long before modern administrative reforms now urged in Indian States were thought of the Ruler had instituted such a system of administration in Sandur State and this has had the advantage of trial and improvement over many years of peace and five war years. The Ruler is the fountain head of all authority. The administration is carried on by elected representatives of the people and by official councils.

LEGISLATURE

A State Council was established in 1931 I nown as Prajamandal has the right to initiate legislation move resolutions and ask questions. The second Chamber of the State Legislature was constituted in 1939 with powers to legislate and vote upon the Budget A Standing Committee was then constituted elected by both Houses of the Legislature further to associate the people in the administration of their own interests and all matters of public interest such as Village Panchayats and Rural Uphit Education Public Health and the levy of new taxes are referred to this Committee

EXECUTIVE

The policy now enunciated of Government by Executive Council known as Huzur Darbar in 1931. This was reorganised in 1937 and further strengthened and the procedure adopted was regularised by the issue of the Mantin Mandal Manual in 1944. A Constitution Manual was issued in 1943 and this lays down the entire adm in trative system of the State.

JUDICIARY

Sandur is perhaps the pioneer among States of her size to constitute an independent Chief Court presided over by a Nyayadish of unimpeach able integrity This court is competent to refer cases to the Federal Court The Judiciary has heen separated from the executive

The Ruler is present at the Secretariat every Tuesday to hear the grievances of his subjects and no one is denied access to him on that day

A Debt Conciliation Board was constituted in 1936 to relieve agricultural indehtedness By the Temple Entry Proclamation of 1932 the ban on Harijans worshipping at temples was lifted

EDUCATION

The State established a central educational institution known as Shri Chatrapathi Shivaji Vadyamandir in 194° Students are coached up to the Matriculation standard and special stress is laid on pre-military

education, extra-curricular activities and a study of "Dhainashastra" A Technical Training Centre has been established at Ramgad in collaboration with the Government of India and it is proposed to use this centre, after the war, for imparting technical training to demobilised Maliratta Soldiers and others

MINERAL RESOURCES.

Sandur holds extensive and excellent deposits of important economic minerals, particularly iron and manganese. Mr Bruce-Foote of the Geological Survey of India has observed that "Sandur is one of the richest iron yielding centres in the whole world" Recent geological reports have revealed the Sandur iron ores to be high grade, with over sixty per cent iron metal. Eminent geologists have testified to the high percentage of pyrolusite in Sandur manganese ores, which have obtained first grade unit prices in Continental markets. There are also extensive deposits of red and yellow iron oxides, which on analysis are found to be highly suitable for the manufacture of paints which satisfy I S D specifications. Enormous quantities of high grade jasper, most useful for the manufacture of mosaic tiles, are available. Kaolin of exceptionally good quality, and suitable for application in the paper industry, or for high quality porcelain and refractory manufacture is also found. Sandur forests abound in sandalwood with a rich oil content.

RULER'S ACTIVITIES.

The Ruler accompanied by Shrimant Rani Saheb Maharaj visited Europe in 1935, and Australia in 1939. The Ruler presided over the Akhila Karnatak Literary Conference at Bellary in 1938, when he stressed the need for a common script for India He also presided over the Inter-Group Sports Tournaments of the University of Bombay in December 1940. In Feb 1941, he unveiled the statue of Tanaji Malusre at Sinhgad. The Ruler is the President of the All-India Maratha Educational Conference and a Member of the Chamber of Princes, representing Phaltan, Aundh, Surgana and Sandur. Since the commencement of the war,, the Ruler is taking active personal interest in war efforts both within and outside the State. He is a Member of the Mahratta Officers' Recruiting Committee constituted by His Excellency the Governor of Bombay and his appeal to the Marathas to join the Aimy in large numbers, was widely responded to A Technical Training Centre to train war technicians has been located at Ramgad Hill Station largely by the Ruler's efforts

His Highness is Colonel-in-Chief of the Travancore State Forces, Hon. Colonel of the 12th Malabar Bn and Hon Lt -Col in the British Aimy He is the founder and Chancellor of the Travancore Univ

Although the Ruler of Travancore is legally the source of all authority, judicial, administrative and legislative, yet for more than a century the Maharajas have acted as constitutional monarchs, without, however, failing to maintain effective personal contact with the administration of the State H H the present Maharaja has not only sedulously adhered to these great traditions of his House, but has readily responded to all the legitimate aspirations of his subjects. There is a Legislature consisting of an Upper and a Lower House with a majority of elected members and possessing large legislative and financial powers and powers of interpellation.

In Nov 1936, H H. promulgated the epoch-making Proclamation throwing open all the temples under his control and that of his Government to all classes of Hindus including those hitherto regarded as untouchables, a reform which evoked universal satisfaction and thankfulness all over the world Another humanitarian reform was achieved by H H's Proclamation in Nov 1944, abolishing the death penalty provided for certain offences under the Travancore Penal Code By another Proclamation in 1937, a University designed specially to promote technological studies and research has been established

Among notable legislative measures recently introduced are the Debt Relief Act, which is designed to alleviate the burden of indebtedness and is wider in scope and application than similar enactments elsewhere, and the Trivandrum City Municipal Act which makes provision for the better management of the municipal affairs of the City through a Corporation

have taken under their control nearly the whole of the road transport system in the State They have also a .clieme for nationalising the water traffic on the chain of canals and lacoons which he fr m end to end of the State. Travancore The Steam Navigation Compaoy has been started for the deve lopment of coastal traffic. They have established the Travancore Credit Bank for granting long term loans to the agriculturists and small industri alists of the State To reduce unemp loyment and fo exploit the immense natural resources of the State the Govt have em harked apon a programme

Among the first fruits of this policy may be mentioned the Pallivasal Hydro Electric Scheme the Cera mlcFactory at Kun dara and the Tray ancore Sugars and Chemicals Ltd the last being incorporated in Travancore and manufacturing desides sugar 200 varieties of pharmaceutical products such as limments liquid extracts liquors pulves spirits syrups and spe cialities including Caffelnaspirin and Lysol The Rubber Factory at Trivandrum is largely engaged in the manufacture of articles for war purposes The Aluminium Smelting Factory at Alwaye which bas commenced production of Aluminium has great possibi lities for the future The Glass

Factory at Alwaye and the Plywood Factory at Punalur have started work

The Travancore Fertilizers and Chemicals have been started with a capital of five crores of rupees

The construction of a chemical and fertilizer factory at Aiwaye for the manufacture of Ammonium Sul phate and other important chemicals has been taken in hand

Arrangements are being made for establishing a cane sugar factory Central Travan core Schemes are well under way for establishing tories for the manu facture of cement cane sugar caustic soda fertilizers sulphuric acid potassiumchlorate ammonium sulpha te ncetic acid and chleium carbide Measures are also in progress for the esta blishment Spinning Mills

H H W h ra iSt Pa rati Baji

Refined salt is being produced on a commercial scale and the State is now able to export salt after meeting all its requirements

The State stands in the fore front of educated India According to the recent census the percentage of literacy on total population is 47 i for the whole State 58 i for males and 36 o for females and the percentage of literacy on the population aged 5 years and over is 55 o for the whole State 67 9 for males and 42 i for females

(Travancore contd)

On the outbreak of the War H. H. the Maharaja generously offered to place the entire resources of the State at the disposal of the British Govt He has not only made munificent contributions to the War Fund but sent the First and Second Infantry Units of the State Forces on active service He has contributed Rs. 6,50,000 for equipping the trawler and mine sweeper "HMIS Travancore" for the use of the R. I N and Rs 1,50,000 for the purchase of two fighter planes for the R A. F Besides, H H has contributed Rs 1,430,000 to H. E. the Viceroy's War Fund, Rs 2,00,000 to H E the Viceroy's Comforts Fund, Rs 1,10,000 for Red Cross Work, Rs. 150,000 for Women's War Work, Rs 25,000 to the King George's Fund for sailors, Rs. 15,000 to H E the Governor's War Fund, Rs 10,000 to St. Dunstan's Fund and Rs 1,000 to General de Gaulle's Funds for amenities to the French prisoners of war H H. Maharani Setu Parvati Bayi has contributed Rs 1,00,000 to H E the Viceroy's War Fund apart from contributions towards equipping a Field Ambulance Unit and to other funds.

H. H's benefactions include large sums of money for earthquake relief, for fight against tuberculosis and similar purposes and annual donations to several philanthropic and scientific bodies. Among his other charitable works is the establishment of a home for the destitute and the infirm He has founded an Art Gallery at the capital in addition to the one he maintains in the Palace. H. H's hobbies are tennis photography, riding and motoring

Travancore is one of the most populous and important of Indian States, next only to Hyderabad and Mysore in population and revenue and occupies the south-west corner of the Indian Peninsula. It is foremost among the Indian States and the Provinces in respect of literacy, both among men and women. Bounded on the North by Cochin State and Coimbatore Dist., on the East by the Districts of

ALMIA, SETH KRISHNA, runs a chain of Cement Factories, a Paper Mill, many Sugar factories which rank among the largest of their kind in India, Electric Companies, Chemical Works, a Plywood factory, a number of collieries, large Agricultural farms, a public Railway carrying . passengers and goods, the Bharat Insurance Co, Bharat Fire & General Insurance Ltd. Bharat Bank Ltd, and many other concerns Despite these and other notable enterprises, his private life is one of rigorous simplicity and he gives away most of his income in charities

village in the Punjab States, from where they derived their family name Dalmia From Punjab, his ancestors migrated to Jaipur State, and to Seth Harjimal, a scion of the Dalmia family, were born two sons, Ramkrishna and Jaidayal Ramkrishna's daughter, Shrimati Ramadevi, a highly educated and cultured lady, is married to Seth Shanti Prasad Jain, also a leading industrialist and business magnate Seth Jai Dayal and Seth Shanti Prasad are his loyal and closest business associates who have quietly organised the Dalmia-Jain Group of Industries

Ramkrishna began life at the early age of 12, being apprenticed to a firm on Rs 10 a month, and made a mark when he was in his teens. His schooling was desultory, but by assiduous home study, he mastered the essential principles of economics and finance. Throughout his stormy career, which was full of numerous ups and downs, he has pre-eminently been a "Karmayogi", and his steadfastness and strong will-power have raised him to his present position. Besides his mastery of technicalities of finance and economics, he has also acquired a good knowledge of English, Hindi, Bengali and Gujerati, all of which he speaks well and with ease. He is well read in Hindu scriptures and his knowledge of Indian philosophy is extensive

His industrial career commenced only twelve years ago, and to-day he is one of the biggest industrial magnates in the country. He has a way of making a success of concerns, which in other hands tend to sink or fail. Always keeping in view the best interests of the country he forged ahead and planned industrial enterprises, which have ultimately proved of immense public benefit and utility. Not many years ago, his centies of activity were scattered in small isolated places. To-day they have grown into self-sufficient towns, aptly named after his ancestors, Dalmianagar (Bihar), Dalmiapuram (South India), Dalmia Dadri (Punjab) and Shantingar (Karachi Sind) the last hear ing the name of his illustrious son in liw. These are the perfect model towns well planned with dean filtered water and electricity lad on Large parks picturesque lawns green playgrounds and wide cement roads surrounding well ventilated modern frictores present a colourful spectacle. These unique features attract every week crowds of tourists and visitors.

The growth of Dalma Cement industry which he entered in 1937 admirably illustrates his organising capacity and perseverance in the face of tremendous competition and opposition from powerful combines. The keen competition put up by his rivals which has been hitherto unbrecedented lasted for years but his untring energy patience and courage wore its edge off and the industry was set on a sound and prosperous footing.

At the end of 1942 he floated the Bharnt Bank Ltd with an authorised capital of Rs 20 crores and an issued capital of Rs 15 crores. The avowed aim of this enterprise is to render service to the masses of India ultimately to help in spreading industry to every nook and corner of the country and to make crores of men and women hank minded by thousands of branches operating in every city and town of India

Seth Dalmia lives plainly wears simple clothes and confines his personal expenses to the barest necessities of life He keeps himself nbreast of latest developments in world politics trade and industry and devotes hours daily to the study of religion and philosophy. His connections me widespread and he is on terms of close friendship with eminent political leaders commercial magnates ruling princes provincial governors executive counciliors and high officials Dalmanagar is the seat of the manufacture of diverse articles of public utility such as Cement Sugar Paper Vegetahle Chee Sulphuric Acid Bleaching Powder Caustic Soda Table Salt Distempers Filter Paper Playing Cards etc Seth Dalmia takes greater pride in the facilities Dalmianagar provides to the workers than in the magnitudes of the industries it houses. He takes keen personal interest in the welfare of his employees for whose recreation special provision has been made. There are clubs libraries gymnasiums playgrounds orchestras theatricals study circles and schools which are the best of their kind in any industrial colony. On all these he spends generously always aming at providing for workers a happy and healthy life.

His charities run into millions but publicity heing avoided few know much about them Following the precepts of the Gita he gives because he should making no distinction of casts and creed in giving In spite of having monumental achievements to his credit Seth Dalmia views them with a sense of detachment always realising that he is not the doer of what he has done but that in him God has fulfilled Himself

UREISHY RATIUSHAN ITTIKHARUL MULK. KHAN BAHADUR, LT-COL, HAJI Maqbool Hassan, MA, LLB, Home Minister, Bahawalpur Government, belongs to a respectable family of the Kureish of Arabia Though hailing originally from the Meerut District, his ancestors had long settled in the State Boin at Bahawalpur in 1900 received his early education in the State, and, later on, joined the Muslim University, Aligarh, where he passed his MA, LLB in 1925 From his earliest childhood he exhibited traits which gave promise of his future eminence

His personal magnetism made itself felt in the sphere of his employment, where he won the golden opinions of his colleagues as well as the ruler under whom he served He began his career in 1925, when he joined the personal staff of His Highness the Nawab Ruler Bahadur of Bahawalpur as an Aide-de-But, it did not take long to discover that the young incum-Accordingly, bent had in him the makings of a capable administrator in 1927, less than two years from the date of his appointment, he was promoted to the rank of Assistant Military Secretary But this was only a stepping stone In January 1930 he was given the combined office of Private and Military Secretary, with the additional charge of the portfolios of Education and Municipalities, and was subsequently raised to the status of Minister-in-Waiting In 1932 he paid a visit to England and other Western countries in company with His Highness the Nawab Ruler Bahadur—a visit which he repeated in 1935 and in 1936 The beautiful volume in which he has chronicled the impressions of his first itinerary is an eloquent testimony to his great powers of observation and expression He has also been to the Near East and performed the holy pilgrimage His services to the State were recently recognised by the Government by the grant of the title of Khan Bahadur, which is the first distinction of its kind to be conferred upon a purely Riyasti Vizier in the State He is also the recipient of many decorations and distinctions from the State, and is His Highness the Nawab Ruler Bahadur's representative in the Senate of the Punjab University

During the 18 years of his incumbency he has been in charge of several departments, and in each he has left the impress of his personality in the shape of many useful administrative reforms which he introduced from time to time. It is due mainly to his efforts that the Chief Court of Bahawalpur has been raised to the status of a High Court. He is a very capable and efficient administrator, having won the highest praise of both the ruler and the ruled by his politeness, impartiality and keen sympathy with the people of the State. He is immensely popular with all classes of His Highness's subjects.

THE ANGLO-IRISII AGENCY LTD., EXPORTERS OF BLOODSTOCK ALL OVER THE WORLD.

Our record as purchasers of English and Irish racehorses that have proved successful abroad is unsurpassed. In India our exports have won every important event and in 1940 included the first three in the Eclipse Stakes Steel Helmet, Spadassin and Dominic.

Every horse is carefully appraised before a deal is completed, not only from the point of view of soundness but for suitability to its new destination. We are keen to maintain our record not only as experts but for integrity and fair dealing.

You want the best horses We have them.

require healthy gums. Prevent gum diseases by regular use of 'Genozo' tooth paste. Dentists recommend 'Genozo' because it contains a special vaccine which protects gums against attacks by germs of pyorrhoea and other dental diseases.

'Genozo' cleans and polishes your teeth gently and thoroughly, leaving the mouth cool and refreshed.
